Talk Descriptions

Understanding Oregon's Family Forest Tax Landscape

Risks and Rewards of Family Forest Ownership:

Clint Bentz, 2002 National Outstanding Tree Farmer of the Year and former chair of the American Forest Foundation will share the challenges faced by family forest landowners, the importance of these owners in our forest ecosystem, and the need for families to plan inter-generationally.

*Presented by Clint Bentz, Boldt., Carlisle, & Smith*

Income Taxes:

This session will take a brief look at determination of basis, capital vs. ordinary gains, and the reforestation tax incentive. *Presented by Tammy Cushing, OSU*Note that this presentation will be offered twice- once at 10:45am and again at 1:15pm.

Estate, Succession, & Business Planning (Parts I and II):

Learn about minimizing estate taxes and optimizing income tax basis, family and operational dynamics, and problems that are better to avoid. Presented by Jeff Cheyne, Samuels, Yoelin, Kantor LLP; Steve Lane, Gleaves Swearingen LLP and Rick Barnes, Barnes & Associates

Note that there will be a Part I and a Part II of this presentation- each will have unique material!

Property Taxes, Deferrals & Harvest Taxes:

Learn all about Oregon's unique forest property and harvest tax programs from one of the professionals who helped design them! Presented by Clint Bentz, Boldt,, Carlisle, & Smith

Note that this presentation will be offered twice- once at 10:45am and again at 1:15pm.

Conservation Easements:

Learn how easements can protect your forestland. Topics will include donated vs. purchased easements, and general tax benefit potential. Presented by Claire Fiegener, Greenbelt Land Trust

Top Ten Ways to be Tax Smart:

Get some valuable tips to help you minimize the tax bite from activities on your forest land. Presented by Ilene Waldorf, Accountant

Forms of Business For Family Forestlands:

Choice of business organization can be critical in the management of forestland. In this session different organizational forms, as well as the legal and tax implications of the choice of form, will be discussed. Presented by John Hasbrook, Oregon State University

Finding the Right Professional:

Professional assistance can be critical to tax planning. Learn the roles different professionals play and how to find professionals who will be the right fit for your family. Presented by Sherry McConnell, Attorney at Law
