

Fish Passage and Habitat Workshop

October 27, 2015
Seaside Convention Center

Classroom Agenda 8:30 – 12:00

| TIME          | TALK                                                            | SPEAKER                                      |
|---------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| 8:00 - 8:30   | Registration                                                    |                                              |
| 8:30 - 9:00   | Welcome and Overview                                            | Julie Woodward, OFRI                         |
| 9:00 - 9:20   | Oregon Plan: Where we were, where we are and where we are going | Greg Apke, ODFW                              |
| 9:20 - 9:40   | Introduction to restoration: Common terminology                 | Guillermo Giannico, OSU Extension            |
| 9:40 - 10:00  | Introduction to Fish Passage                                    | Fran Cafferata Coe, OFRI                     |
| 10:00 - 10:20 | Break                                                    |                                              |
| 10:20 - 10:45 | Voluntary Forest Practice Measures                              | Kyle Abraham, ODF                            |
| 10:45 - 11:10 | Economic Solutions to Fish Passage for family forestland owners | Jeff VanOsdol, Big River Construction        |
| 11:10 - 11:35 | Think like a fish: designs for passage and habitat              | Guillermo Giannico, OSU Extension            |
| 11:35 - 12:00 | Logistics for planning projects in streams: tools and resources | Melyssa Graeper, Necanicum Watershed Council |
| 12:00 - 12:45 | Lunch and safety briefing                                       |                                              |
| 12:45         | Load Bus                                                        |                                              |

Field Agenda 12:00 – 4:30

| TIME                          | TOPIC                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|-------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 12:45 - 1:10                  | Drive to site at Lewis and Clark Tree Farm (Greenwood Resources)                                                                                                                                                                      |
| STOP 1:1:10 - 2:00 | Hawley Arch (Overview by Jim Hunt, Greenwood Resources and Melyssa Graeper, Necanicum Watershed Council)Collaborative project to improve fish passageObliterated road and new road alignmentRestroom break at County park |
| STOP 2:2:30 - 3:30 | Kloutchy Creek (Troy Law, ODFW)Fish habitat improvement projectLarge woody material recruitmentMonitoring results                                                                                                         |
| 3:30 - 4:00                   | Load and drive back                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 4:30                          | Conclude at Seaside Convention Center                                                                                                                                                                                                 |