

Fish Passage and Habitat Workshop

October 29, 2015

Chemeketa Eola Viticulture Center

215 Doaks Ferry Road, Salem

Classroom Agenda 8:30 – 12:00

TIME	TALK	SPEAKER
8:00 - 8:30	Registration
8:30 - 9:00	Welcome and Overview	Julie Woodward, OFRI
9:00 - 9:20	Oregon Plan: Where we were, where we are and where we are going	Greg Apke, ODFW
9:20 - 9:40	Introduction to restoration: Common terminology	Guillermo Giannico, OSU Extension
9:40 - 10:00	Introduction to Fish Passage	Fran Cafferata Coe, OFRI
10:00 - 10:20	Break
10:20 - 10:40	Voluntary Forest Practice Measures	Kyle Abraham, ODF
10:40 - 11:00	Economic Solutions to Fish Passage for forestland owners	Lucas Hunt, Polk Soil and Water Conservation District
11:00 - 11:20	Think like a fish: designs for passage and habitat	Jerry Anderson, Hancock Forest Management
11:20 - 11:40	Logistics for planning projects in streams: tools and resources	Scott Snedaker, BLM
11:40 - 11:45	Overview of field sites and safety briefing	Jennifer Bakke, Hancock Forest Management
11:45 - 12:00	Pick up box lunches and load vans

Field Agenda 12:00 – 4:30

TIME	TOPIC
12:00 – 1:00	Eat lunch while traveling to field sites – Rickreall Watershed
STOP 1: 1:00 – 1:45	Mercer Reservoir: Fish Passage, Trap and Haul Program (Lucas and Tom)
STOP 2: 1:45 – 2:30	Rockhouse Creek: Future enhancement (pre restoration), Culvert to Bridge Replacement (Scott, Lucas, and Jerry)
STOP 3: 2:30 – 3:15	Directional Tree Felling for in-stream habitat (Jennifer Bakke) Log installation using ground-based equipment (Scott and Lucas) View stockpiled logs for helicopter placement
3:30	Load and return to Eola Viticulture Center